hey if you like this project please think about buying something from unamerican... thank you! :)

Our civilization has the technology to solve your problem.

Hi there. My name is !!!srini and I run a small propaganda project on the Internet called Unamerican Activities. I make really funny (and true) stickers, t-shirts, pins and coffee mugs that say all kinds of outrageous things, ranging from political sedition (such as "Whitey Will Pay") to personal empowerment ("Don't Postpone Joy") to cultural commentary ("Destroy Limp Bizkit"). I'm just a big fan of communication and I wanted to create a bunch of tools for other people to use; that's the idea behind the greeting card you hold in your hand right now.

These cards can be downloaded and printed at <http://www.unamerican.com> in the Propaganda section of the site. There are a lot of different ones to choose from, and they're free, hurrray hurrray! So please come by, and thank you for your support!!!
